Dogs—Muzzling of. (Reg. Bd. of H., May 5, 1913.)

ART. 9. Dogs.—SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any dog or dogs to be allowed at large upon any public highway or public places in the town unless such dog shall be securely and properly muzzled in a manner to prevent the same from biting any person or animal. This section shall not apply to dogs in actual use for hunting purposes and in charge of the owner or person in the field. The term "dog" as herein used shall include "bitch."

SEC. 2. The owner or any person who shall willfully allow any dog or dogs to run at large in violation of the foregoing provisions shall be subject to a fine of not more than $5.

SEC. 3. Every dog found running at large in violation of the foregoing provision shall be forthwith seized by any peace officer of the county or by any person or persons designated by this board of health and shall be killed by the person or persons after said seizure by shooting the same or in such manner as will cause the dog so killed the least suffering. The expenses of carrying out the provisions of this ordinance shall be audited and allowed by this board as are other charges against the same.

SEC. 4. The officer enforcing the provisions of the foregoing sections of this article shall be allowed the sum of $2 for caring for, destroying, and burying each dog seized pursuant to the provisions of the article; but no claim shall be allowed except on the approval of the local justice of the peace.

Food and Drink—Sale of Unwholesome Prohibited. (Reg. Bd. of H., May 5, 1913.)

ART. 10. Food and drink.—SECTION 1. Any person who shall sell, or expose, or offer for sale, or give away or offer to give away, any article of food or drink which is rotten, decayed, unwholesome, adulterated, or contains matter deleterious, or in any way injurious to health, or unfit for use, is liable to a penalty of $50.

Enforcement of Regulations of Board of Health. (Reg. Bd. of H., May 5, 1913.)

ART. 11. Miscellaneous.—SECTION 1. In pursuance of the provisions of article 3 of the public health laws, in case of noncompliance with any order or regulation which shall have been served or posted by the board of health, the said board or its servants or employees, may lawfully enter upon any premises to which such order or regulation related, and suppress or remove the nuisance or other matter, in the judgment of said board, detrimental to the public health mentioned in such orders or regulations, and any other nuisance or matter of the description aforesaid, found there existing; and the expense thereof shall be a charge upon the occupant, or any or all occupants, of the said premises, or upon the person or persons who have caused or maintained the nuisance or other matter of the description aforesaid, and may be sued for and recovered with costs by said board in the name of the town, in any court having jurisdiction. Whenever execution upon any judgment so obtained shall have been returned wholly or in part unsatisfied, it shall be a lien upon said premises, having preference over all other liens or incumbrances whatever.

SEC. 2. All provisions of the laws of this State relating to the preservation of the public health applicable to towns are hereby declared to be included in the rules and regulations of the board of health of the town of Oyster Bay.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the health officer to take all necessary legal proceedings to enforce these laws, rules and regulations, and to proceed by mandamus, injunction, or otherwise, to enforce the same and to restrain violations thereof; and it shall also be its duty to proceed against any violator or violators thereof, by criminal action or proceeding, in any court of competent jurisdiction.
